NEW PREXY CHAPLAINS ASSOCIATION

Rev. W. W. Herring, pastor of First Church, Eupora, was elected president of the Southern Baptist Chaplains' Association at its annual meeting week before last in Houston, Texas, just prior to the Southern Baptist Convention.

Other officers named were: Vice-President, Rev. Harry A. McKnight, Washington, D. C.; and Secretary, Chaplain Louis B. Parks, Houston, Texas.

The Association is composed of Chaplains and former Chaplains of the Army, Navy and Air Force, as well as of the Veterans Administration, National Guard, Civil Air Patrol, hospitals, institutions and industry.

Mr. Herring is a member of the Chaplain Corps of the United States Naval Reserve with the rank of Commander. He served three and one-half years on active duty during World War II with duty in the United States and in the Pacific Theatre.

He is now attached to the Naval Reserve Composite Company No. 6-53 located at Mississippi State University, Starkville, Miss.

Europe Baptists Plan

By GAINES S. DOBBINS

"Baptists represent Europe's chief hope of spiritual and social recovery," declared Dr. Henry Cook, Secretary of the European Baptist Federation and featured speaker of the evangelism conference held at Ruschlikon Seminary, Zurich, Switzerland, May 6-13. From eighteen countries and speaking twelve languages, representatives came for intensive planning to make 1959 "The Year of Evangelism" throughout the British Isles and the Continent. "In every generation God has found a way," said Dr. Joel Sorenson, pastor of First Baptist Church, Stockholm, Sweden, and chairman of the committee on Evangelism of the Federation. What will be his way to bring the people of Europe out of their fear, distress, and spiritual darkness?

Distinctives

Dr. Henry Cook restated dynamically the great Baptist distinctives as they apply to evangelism: (1) lost world; (2) the only Saviour; (3) faith-salvation; (4) a marvelous opportunity. Baptists are poles apart from the "established" churches, which "depend on the stork as their evangelists," since the baby is born and baptized into the church, whereas Baptists call for personal decision and commitment and practice only believer's baptism.

We of the United States need to come into closer fellowship with and deeper appreciation of our European fellow-Baptists. They are a noble fellowship, coming into closer unity thru their Federation, and capable of teaching us many lessons of courage and sacrifice and devotion.

5000 YP Set For Toronto

TORONTO, Canada — (BWA) — Registrations to the Fifth Baptist Youth World Conference here already have topped the 5,000 mark with a full month remaining before the opening session June 27.

Douglas Gow, arrangements chairman, announced a total of 5,122 paid registrations as of May 29, and guessed the final total may exceed 6,500.

A total of 70 different countries are represented in the tabulations.

Theme for the five day meet, June 27-July 2, is "Christ for the world—Now!"

At least one session will overflow the Varsity Arena on the University of Toronto campus — the Sunday evening service in which Prime Minister John Diefenbaker, a Baptist layman, speaks on World Peace. Maple Leaf Garden, with a capacity of about 17,000, has been engaged for that session so that visitors also may attend.

It will be by far the largest of five conferences held thus far under auspices of the Youth Department of the Baptist World Alliance. Previous meetings were held in Prague, 1931; Zurich, 1937; Stockholm, 1949; and Rio de Janeiro, 1953.

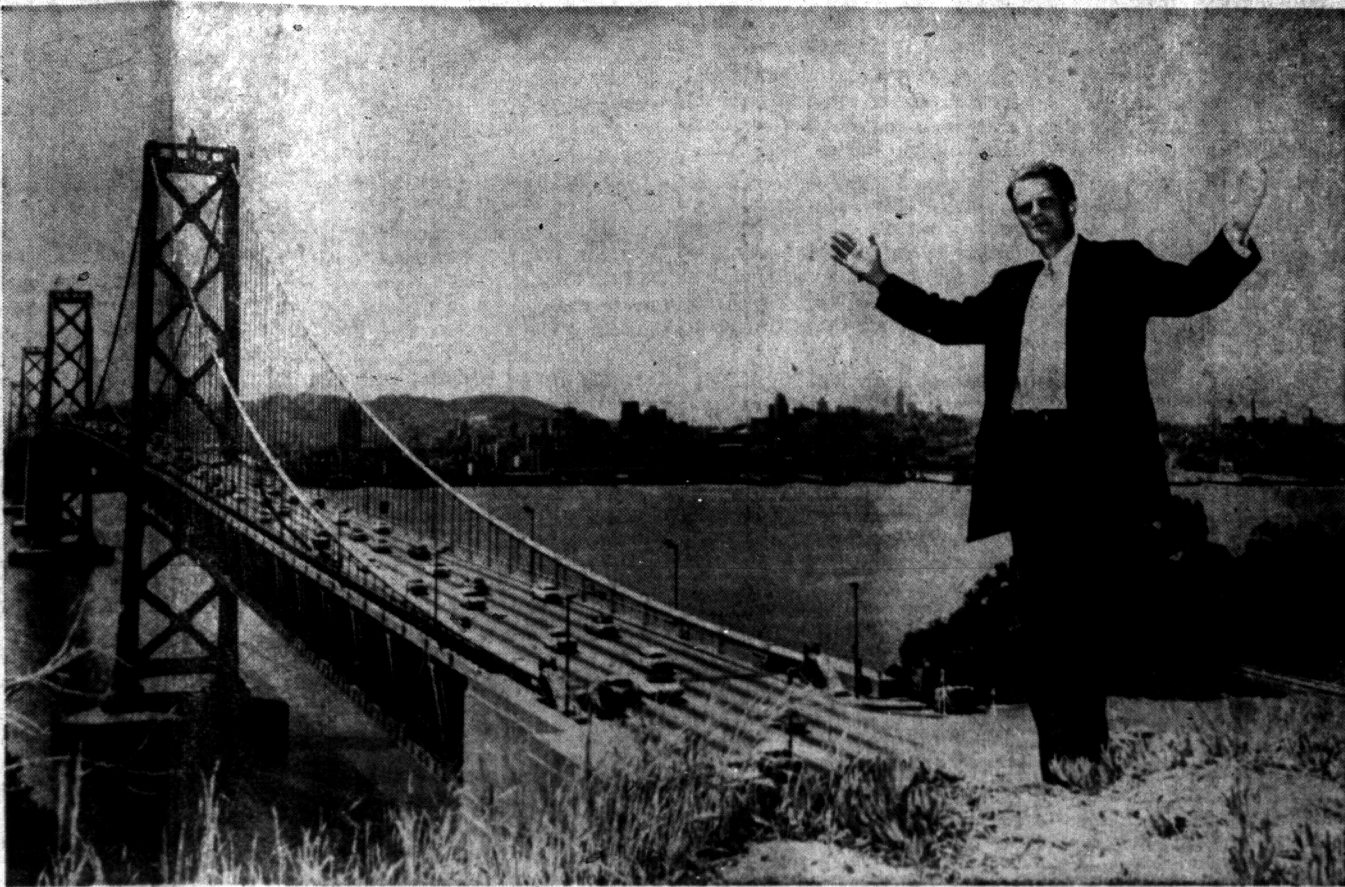

The meeting will open Friday evening, June 27, with a Roll Call of Nations and the keynote address by Rev. Joel Sorenson of Stockholm, chairman of the BWA Youth Committee. It will close Wednesday evening with an address by Dr. Theodore F. Adams, president of the Baptist World Alliance.

Each morning's program closes with the meeting of simultaneous conferences, wherein youth are encouraged to discuss together the morning's lectures in the light of their own experiences in their homelands.

The afternoon is given to fellowship and workshops. "Spotlight" falls on other continents at the evening hour, followed by a featured address.

A 1000-voice international youth choir directed by William Reynolds of Nashville, Tennessee, will sing at all sessions.

Other speakers will include J. A. Adegbite, Nigeria; Mrs. Edgar F. Bates, Canada; Lien Chow, Taiwan; David Gomez, Brazil; Jitsuo Morikawa, New York; David Russell, England; Willie Wickramasinghe, Ceylon.

BILLY GRAHAM EMBRACES SAN FRANCISCO—San Francisco, Calif. — Standing on a cliff overlooking Golden Gate Bridge, Billy Graham stretches his arms as if to embrace the entire city in his evangelistic crusade. Mr. Graham's rallies in Cow Palace here have drawn such large crowds that crusade officials said his six-week campaign may be extended two weeks.

A total attendance of more than 228,400 was reported for the first two weeks and 8,180 made "decisions for Christ." (Religious News Ser. Photo.)

Evangelism Clinics Ready June 16-27

Every association in Mississippi, as well as every association in the Southern Convention is scheduled to conduct an associational evangelism clinic this summer. Most of those in Mississippi will be June 16-27, it has been announced by Dr. Joe T. Odle, state associate executive secretary.

These clinics will be a part of the preparation for the 1959 evangelistic crusade and the Jubilee Advance Program and will consist of two sessions, one beginning at 3 p. m. and the other at 7 p. m.

Each clinic will have a featured speaker, representing the State Convention Board office in Jackson.

The afternoon sessions will be of particular interest to pastors while every member of the church, and particularly the church leadership, is urged to attend the evening session.

Actual Dates

The actual dates to be observed will be June 16-17, 19-20, 23-24, and 26-27, with no meetings scheduled on Wednesdays.

Assisting in conducting the clinic will be the associational superintendents of missions in the state and the three associates in the Department of Cooperative Missions.

Eual Lawson, of the Department of Evangelism of the Home Mission Board, Dallas, will be the principal speaker in eight of the clinics.

The suggested afternoon program will include a discussion of the Southern Baptist Program of Evangelism, a forum on "Evangelism in Our Association," a message on "The Association Must Lead the Way," and one on "Let's Do It Right This Time."

The night session will include a brief report of the afternoon session, a message on "Your Church and Evangelism" and a closing sermon by a pastor on "Every Baptist a Soul-Winner."

"Liberty" Debate Rising

By C. EMANUEL CARLSON, Director
Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs
Washington, D. C.

Church leaders in America seem to be headed for a time of testing which will be more demanding than the examination for ordination.

If recent events are harbingers of the future we can look forward to an age of serious religious debate, and expect that church-state relations will be a most likely focus of discussion.

Baptists Now In Birthplace Of John Calvin

LONDON, England (BWA)—Dr. Henry Cook, Acting European Secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, tells of his visit with Henri Vincent to Noyan, France, where Calvin was born. He found that a Baptist group meets on alternate Sundays with the Reformed Church in the Calvin Memorial House. "What," said M. Vincent, "would Calvin think about that?" "By now," Dr. Cook replied, "he no doubt understands Baptist beliefs better than he did."

Dr. Cook reports that "our work in France is not large, judged by British or American standards. The total membership of the Baptist Union of France is about 2000, though there is another Baptist group with about 1000 members and outside both these bodies several independent Baptist churches. Could all our Baptist groups be united, they would have something like 5000 members and these, acting and planning together, would exercise a much wider influence."

Beer Money Now Used For Bibles

"I used to drink lots of beer, but now I use the money to buy Bibles," answered a Brazilian woman when her Baptist pastor asked her how she manages to pay for the many Bibles she gives away.

She was a dancer when she heard preaching in the street and went down from her apartment to ask where the church was located.

After going to the services, she was converted.

She asked the pastor to get her a Bible, and then she asked to buy more that she might give them to her former friends.

Calls for serious communication between religious groups have been expressed from several segments of religious life in America. Perhaps the initiative should be conceded to the Knights of Columbus who launched their well-known advertising campaign. Spokesmen for various Protestant communities have likewise sought channels for conversation.

Now agencies of American secular life have made themselves available as channels. The Fund for the Republic recently sponsored a week of discussion among assorted leaders of Protestant thought and leaders of Roman Catholic and Jewish thought. The intensive exchanges have been widely reported in the religious press of all camps. They bore very largely on church-state matters.

The Big Issue

In this atmosphere Lawrence Spivak, of "Meet the Press" television fame, decided to grapple with the significance of religion as a factor in choosing a president of the United States. A panel of four well known spokesmen faced a group of newspaper men on the program, June 1, under the title, "The Big Issue."

The question at this point is, will the debate be "operation understanding" or will it be "operation misunderstanding"? Debate sorts out the men from the boys, and differentiates Christian convictions from bigotry. Maturity shows itself most clearly when differences are being aired.

This debate is long overdue. For decades religious groups have talked more about other groups than to them. The evangel of love in Christ, however, calls for Christian outreach in honest concern. The rising evangelistic tide of our day must involve sincere debate.

Also, if the new popularity of religion in our day is something more than "scare psychology" it can be expected to seek fresh and up-to-date meaning for the good old vocabulary of our faith. After all, Christianity was never designed to be a "movement of handed down verbalisms. If it is alive it is always relevant. Experience with God calls for thoughtful application to all of life.

Whittingtons Give $50,000 For MC Fine Arts Bldg.

A gift of $50,000 from Ex-Cong. Will M. Whittington and his wife Mrs. Anna Ward Aven Whittington was announced at the Mississippi College commencement exercises Sunday afternoon.

The gift will go toward equipment for the new Fine Arts building of the college, now nearing completion on the corner formerly occupied by the residence of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Aven, parents of Mrs. Whittington, who donated the property to the college.

Cong. and Mrs. Whittington were called to the platform as their gift was announced by President McLeMure. The Fine Arts building is being named the Aven Building.

Congressman Whittington was honored as a member of the class of 1898, sixty years ago, and more than a dozen members of the class of 1908 held a reunion in connection with commencement.

Sixteen of the eighteen living members of the class of 1908 and two of the three living members of the class of 1898 were present. The classes originally numbered 38 and 15, respectively.

MISS TRAYLOR HONORED—Miss Nettie Ree Traylor (left), Executive Assistant in the State W. M. U. office, receives from Miss Edwina Robinson, state W. M. U. Executive Secretary, a congratulatory cake in recognition of her 39 years with the office. The presentation was made at a social event given in her honor at the Baptist Bldg., Jackson, Friday afternoon. The flowers on the table as well as other gifts from her fellow-workers and friends were also presented.

Hospital Loan Bill Approved By Committee

WASHINGTON (BP) — Government loans to sectarian hospitals will be available on a long-term, low-interest basis, if current proposed legislation in Congress is enacted into law.

H. R. 12694, introduced by Rep. John Bell Williams (D., Miss.) has been reported out of the sub-committee on health and science to be considered by the full House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce.

Rep. Oren Harris (D., Ark.) is chairman of the full committee. It is anticipated that H. R. 12694 will be considered by the House Committee on June 3 or 4. If it is approved there it will go to the House Rules Committee, which will determine if and when it will appear on the Calendar for the House of Representatives.

H. R. 12694 is an amendment to the Hill-Burton Act, which provides government grants to non-profit hospitals. The new proposals will make the same money available to sectarian hospitals as a loan as well as a grant.

One of the reasons for this special legislation is that many Baptist hospitals could not conscientiously accept government grants, but they would be willing to accept government assistance in the form of a loan.

The new legislation provides that any hospital that could qualify for a government grant would also be eligible for a loan "in accordance with the same procedures and subject to the same limitations and conditions."

Before loans or grants to non-profit hospitals can be approved, the government must be provided with a description of the hospital site, plans and specifications for the proposed buildings, reasonable assurance of adequate financial responsibility, reasonable assurance that laborers in the construction will receive fair wages, and assurance that the hospital shall provide facilities without discrimination on account of race, color, or creed.

At earlier hearings on the hospital loan bills, two prominent Southern Baptists offered testimony. They were Rep. Brooks Hays (D., Ark.), president of the Southern Baptist Convention, and John Buchanan, retired pastor of the South side Baptist Church, Birmingham, Ala., and now public relations director for the Baptist Hospital at Montgomery, Ala.

The Pachuta Church is celebrating its one hundredth anniversary the fifth Sunday in June.

An interesting program is being planned with all former pastors and members being asked as special guests.

There will be a regular Sunday morning service with the sermon by a former pastor. After "Dinner on the Ground," there will be an afternoon worship service when all former pastors will have an opportunity to give greetings.

The Central Planning Committee are Mrs. J. K. McKinnon, Chairman; Mrs. R. E. Covington Sr., and Mrs. L. C. Rhoden.

REV. OWEN WILLIAMS DIES AT HIS HOME IN JACKSON

Rev. Owen Williams, 71, died Monday morning, June 2, at his home in Jackson, following a lengthy illness.

A native of Illinois, Williams attended Bethel College there and came to Mississippi in 1917 as pastor of the Brookfield Baptist Church. Later he was pastor of the Forest Church. For 2 1/2 years he was field worker for the Baptist State Convention Board. After serving as pastor of the Utica Church for 28 1/2 years, he retired in 1951.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Mamie McChesney Williams; a son, Owen Williams, Jr., of Jackson; five daughters, Mrs. Curtis Smith of Drew, Mrs. Rebecca Nesmith of Sky Forest, Calif., Mrs. Harvey C. Reese, Jr., of Memphis; Mrs. Jerry Harpole of Canton and Mrs. W. P. Austin of Terry; three sisters, Mrs. Charles Walker of Preston, Ind., Mrs. W. D. Lacey of Wood River, Neb., and Mrs. Mary Wendell of St. Louis; a brother, R. T. Williams of San Francisco; and 14 grandchildren.

Services were held Tuesday at Utica Church with Dr. W. D. Hudgins, pastor of First Baptist of Jackson, officiating, assisted by Rev. R. L. Wallace of Raymond, Rev. P. E. Dixon of Utica, Dr. T. W. Green of Jackson, Dr. Bracey Campbell of Clinton, Dr. W. A. Hewitt of Jackson and Rev. Percy Cooper of Jackson.

Cecil Roper and Reid Moore were in charge of special music at the services.

Burial was in Utica City cemetery.

MANILA — (EP) — Although warned that he was risking "political suicide" by doing so, Senator Roseller T. Lim of the Philippine Senate recently charged "fanatical" members of the Catholic hierarchy and laymen with "retarding the progress of the country."

Speaking at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Scottish Rites Masons, Senator Lim, himself a Catholic, accused the Roman Catholic church officials of intolerance: "How do you expect our country to progress when our thought and actions are controlled by the Catholic hierarchy?"

Branded as "anti-Catholic" because he presented a bill in Congress seeking to prohibit the use of any religious influence for or against any candidate during elections, Senator Lim explained that religion, which deals with things of the spirit, should not be brought down to the level of "dirty politics."

Regarding his "political suicide," Lim (one of the top vote-getters in the last elections) declared, "I don't want to think of the next elections. I want to think of the next generation of my people. It's about time we spoke up to the fanaticism, narrow-mindedness, and intolerance about us."

Summer Director Named For Bible Society Campaign

The theme for the summer with the American Bible Society in Mississippi is to "Saturate the Delta."

In a recent conference in Jackson, Rev. Newton Wise, district secretary with offices in Atlanta announced that J. T. Griffin, a Mississippi layman, has been selected for full time work during the summer months to promote the work of Scripture distribution.

He will strive to encourage the pastors and churches to take a survey and see to it that every person within the sound of their church bell has a good readable copy of the Holy Bible.

The plan is very simple. The church will order their books from the Bible Society. They will sell them to any Bibleless home that wants one and can afford one for merely the cost of publication.

The church will donate one to the family that cannot afford one but will promise to read it. The Bible Society will pay part of the cost of the scriptures donated and the church will pay the rest.

Mr. Griffin is a Christian layman and retired school teacher. He is a graduate of Millsaps college and the University of Mississippi. His address is 512 Fondren Place, Jackson, Miss., and his telephone number is 60-2386.

Dr. Chester L. Quarles, state Baptist executive secretary-treasurer, urges the full cooperation of each Baptist church with the Bible Society in their projects.

Re: Printing and Mailing

A FANTASY

By
Anne Washburn McWilliams
Editorial Assistant

Scene: Printing and Mailing Department, Baptist Building, Jackson.

Time: Monday morning, 7:50 o'clock.

Drafting Table: I wonder which Department will be first today. Somebody had better get busy soon with the composition that must be done if that average of 20,000 sheets of paper are to be printed today! After an idle weekend I'm itching to get started!

Multilith Offset Press: Buddy, if you think you do the work you ought to watch me for a while! Besides the letterheads and envelopes I print, 95% of the literature mailed out from the Baptist Building — pamphlets, booklets, programs, letters — are printed with my help.

Mimeograph Machine: You think you are so big and beautiful — trying to take away all my business! But I'm still kept pretty busy, I'll grant you! I can easily copy 100 letters per minute from any stencil fed me!

Folding Machine: Ha! I can do better than that. I can fold 125 letters or pamphlets per minute. And I can fold them plain or fancy.

Addressograph: I can address 100 envelopes per minute, but I'm like the rest of you — I can't do it by myself. Jack Roberts, with his new part-time assistant, Burrell Bond, keeps us all going eight hours a day, five days a week!

Mailing Machine: Jack Roberts is a pretty nice guy, but he really makes me work, especially every afternoon. On May 13, I was filled with $1,032.85 worth of postage. By May 21 — seven working days later — that supply was down to $527.29. Besides stamping the letters and other promotional materials, I seal letters sent to Spain, England, Canada, Mexico, Argentina, Hawaii, Alaska, Cuba, California, Texas, Alabama, Tennessee (loads of them to Nashville), Georgia, and dozens of other places.

Paper Cutter: But the largest part of the mail is sent to the churches here in the state, is it not?

Mailing Machine: Yes. To the more than 1700 Southern Baptist churches in Mississippi — to the pastors, the educational directors, music directors, W. M. U. Presidents, Sunday School Superintendents, Training Union Directors, Brotherhood Presidents, to promote various phases of work among Mississippi Baptists, to inform the people of the work being done at the Baptist Building, to promote the growth of God's Kingdom.

Multilith Offset Press: Tell me about Jack Roberts. What does he do beside making us work so hard?

Mimeograph Machine: He was born in Grenada, but he's lived in Jackson since he was seven months old. A graduate of Central High School, Jackson, he worked for the Addressograph-Multigraph Corporation. After serving in the Naval Reserve and for a time in the Air Force he worked in the Printing Department for the Highway Patrol and later in the Printing Department at the University Medical Center.

Drafting Table: How long has he been working at Baptist Headquarters?

Mimeograph Machine: Almost two years. A member of Ridgecrest Baptist Church, he is married to the former Elizabeth Cothern. They have a five-year old boy, Michael John, and a five-month-old girl, Cynthia Diane.

Mailing Machine: Jack is a friendly, likeable person. So is Burrell. I know Burrell very well, as he and I work together a great deal. Born in Caribelle, Florida and graduated from Wiggins High School in Mississippi, he is now a freshman at Mississippi College and a member of the Clinton Baptist Church. This summer he plans to live with his sister in Florence while working full-time at Baptist Building.

Paper Cutter: He formerly worked for the "Stone County Enterprise," didn't he?

Mailing Machine: That's right. Here comes Jack now. We'd better get set for a busy Monday.

Requisition Book: I have some orders for supplies from the stockroom he has to fill first. You'll get a few more minutes rest.

(A few minutes later, the noise of machinery is heard in the Printing and Mailing department. Jack begins work, little dreaming of the "conversation" that has just taken place. The phone rings. It's the Brotherhood Department. They will have the rough draft ready for a pamphlet shortly. He hangs up the phone. It rings again. It's the B. S. U. Department. The program for the B. S. U. Retreat must be finished before noon. Jack hangs up the receiver. The phone rings again. The W. M. U. Department must have a schedule for Camp Garywa printed right away. The phone, barely back in its cradle, rings once more. The Baptist Record wants 1000 letters mimeographed to go in the monthly statements . . . and rush them, please . . .)

G. A. BANQUET AT RULEVILLE

"Star Gazing" was the theme of the G. A. Mother-Daughter Banquet at Ruleville Church, May 15.

Sixty-two mothers and daughters met at the church for a supper prepared by the Women's Missionary Society. After the meal there were skits presented by the Junior G. A. and Intermediate G. A. The Junior G. A. skit was presented as Queen for a Week in which one G. A. girl was crowned as queen for a week.

The Intermediate G. A. presented Building A Chain of Stars as they represented five missionaries.

BURRELL BOND, assistant in the Printing and Mailing Department at the Baptist Building, operates the Mailing Machine.

Supervisors Help Jackson County Baptist Work

The Jackson County Board of Supervisors has made it possible for another Southern Baptist Church to have a place for services until the group can procure a location and build a church of its own. The group had been meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davis near Helena.

The Community House at Helena, the new location, was originally erected for a school house.

This group of Baptist people met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Davis on Easter Sunday for the first time. At the first service there were twenty-two people present.

The promotional Secretary of Jackson County Baptist Association, Rev. W. P. Young, gave the group the support of his office.

A Sunday School has already been tentatively organized. This Baptist work at Helena is being led by Rev. A. E. Howell Sr.

Church Banquet Honors Graduates

On May 24, at 7 o'clock, a banquet was held in honor of the seniors of Mount Vernon Church in Leflore County, including the pastor, Rev. Melvin Eugene Winters, who graduated from Mississippi College in May.

Shall We Scuttle Cuba?

The Committee to Study the Total Southern Baptist Convention Program put forth one recommendation at Houston which would have seriously crippled some of our most promising mission work.

This "Recommendation 15" called for "gradual transfer of responsibility for (Home Mission Board) work in Cuba, Panama, and the Canal Zone to local conventions." Along with six other recommendations pertaining to the Home Mission Board, this one was referred to the committee for further study during this year.

As it stands, this simple instruction is not objectionable. This summary sentence puts forth the object of all Baptist missions at home and abroad—the establishment of active, self-supporting, self-determining churches of like faith and order.

In the fuller statement of the recommendation, however, there is a call for "the gradual reduction and eventual transfer" of the work to the nationals. This scheduled "reduction" of Home Mission Board leadership and financial support, would be a tragic mistake at this time.

The various groups of national Baptists on mission fields certainly need the stimulus of responsibility, they need full opportunity for their own initiative, they need the freedom to exercise New Testament autonomy. Progress is being made in that direction on all three of the aforementioned mission fields. But this is hardly the time to toss them out of the circle of our mission program and leave them to sink or swim.

We have traveled in these areas and been in the churches of Cuba, Panama, and the Canal Zone. Like the churches in other Latin American countries, these Baptists are not strong enough to carry on their own work as yet. This is especially true of Cuba.

The Baptist Convention of Western Cuba has made encouraging strides over the past 53 years. There are now 84 churches with 8,972 members and these conduct 166 missions and 401 Sunday Schools. There are 21 churches in metropolitan Havana, the largest (Calvary Church) has 1,903 members.

These Baptist brethren are interested in self-support and are working toward it. Last year they gave $174,000 to all causes, some $59,000 of which went outside their local churches to mission work in Western Cuba and the world. Seventeen members of the present Cuban Mission Board are Cubans, three are Americans. There are now three American missionary couples and three single women missionaries working with 71 Cuban pastors and eight single Cuban women workers.

Dr. Herbert Caudill, superintendent of all this work, says "The work of the Home Mission Board in Cuba will not be complete until our churches reach self-support and we have reached out and established work in all parts of the country."

To push these wonderfully warm-hearted Baptist friends out into the cold to shift for themselves at this juncture in their history—by any scheme of "gradual reduction"—would do irreparable harm to the work we have labored together to build for Christ.

Dr. Caudill points out the work still has many serious difficulties—inadequate buildings, migratory membership, low income level for the average Baptist family (less than $100 per month), limited missionary force, plus the uncertainties of a civil war in the island. At present the people can pay only 20 percent of the salaries of their pastors and other workers. The remaining 80 percent is supplied by Southern Baptists through the Home Mission Board.

The Cubans have taken on more and more responsibilities—organizational and departmental promotion, a camp in the beautiful Yumuri Valley, a hospital, a home for the aged, the publication of an excellent paper, (La Voz Bautista), radio evangelism, and support of the Cuban seminary. Their efforts have freed the available funds from the Home Mission Board for other pressing needs all about. To reduce these funds during the next few years—indeed, to fail to increase these missionary funds—would be to turn our backs on one of our grandest opportunities for missionary service anywhere in the world.

When the Survey Committee brings its report to the convention in Louisville next year we would like to be able to vote for—not a retrenchment, not a strategic retreat, but for a truly adequate mission outreach for Cuba, for Panama and for the Canal Zone.

The Race Issue At Houston

Christian Index

The racial issue didn't hurt the Convention. It provided the headlines for the day, to be sure, but that is only a minor consideration.

Georgia's Montague Cook did a masterful job of presenting his opposition to a section of the report (of the Christian Life Commission).

Usually, speakers on one side or the other try to stir emotions and cloud the issue. Dr. Cook didn't, the messengers listened with courtesy, and they voted to receive the Christian Life Commission report.

The report, like others without specific recommendations, are "received" and not "adopted." Questions asked and answered made it abundantly clear that everybody here knew action wasn't binding on the churches. It was an expression from the majority of the messengers; nothing more and nothing less.

Convention President

Baptist Message

The election of Brooks Hays as president of the Southern Baptist Convention in 1957 raised doubts in the minds of many as to whether such action was wise or not. Some were fearful that, being a Congressman, he might inject national politics in the denominational life of the convention. Those doubts were transformed into words of praise by the masterful and Christian manner in which he presided over the 1958 session.

The attitude now is that he is the man of the hour and that Southern Baptists are honored to have such an outstanding Christian statesman serving as president of the convention. Certainly his re-election was merited and was a wise course of action.

The spirit of the president was clearly revealed in a classic statement that he made during a session when sparks were flying. With all sincerity and in a very simple manner he said, "As Southern Baptists, in all matters we are to strive for a spirit of unity rather than uniformity of views."

Brooks Hays is a man of wide Christian influence and deep convictions. Evidence that the Congressman stands

Dream Of Religious Liberty Realized In First Amendment

NEW YORK, September 25, 1789 — (BP) — This is a day Roger Williams dreamed of 150 years ago as he was banished from Massachusetts into a frozen wilderness because of his "dangerous" religious convictions.

It is a day Obadiah Holmes envisioned in Boston a hundred and thirty-four years ago when he was given thirty lashes at a public whipping post for conducting illegal Baptist worship services.

And scores of Baptist preachers in Virginia looked to this day as they suffered fines, imprisonment, insults, and bodily harm for "disturbing the peace" with their Baptist message.

Freedom of Religion

Today at the opening session of the First Congress here James Madison presented a Bill of Rights or amendments to the new Constitution. The first of the amendments would assure freedom of religion.

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion," reads the proposed amendment, "or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances."

Washington Helped

The reference to freedom of religion in the proposed Bill of Rights may be the direct result of a letter Virginia Baptists sent to President George Washington last month urging him to correct this omission in the Constitution.

Baptists now have proof that their President is as good as his word when he wrote them recently that no one would be more zealous than he "to establish effectual barriers against the horrors of spiritual tyranny and every species of religious persecution."

These principles of soul liberty by his convictions is the appearance in Washington social circle of "Brooks Hays punch." It is made by mixing orange juice with ginger ale—and no alcohol. This is a rarity in Washington, where more liquor is consumed than sweet milk. A general of the Army has said, "One of the greatest dangers to America's security is the cocktail lounge in Washington, D. C."

It was Brooks Hays who introduced a resolution several years ago for a prayer room in the capitol. Today that chapel is a reminder of the powerful influence for good of a Christian in public service.

As the president gives generously of his time and talents traveling throughout America and foreign countries on Kingdom business, the prayers of Baptists should go with him.

Canada and Southern Baptists

Chairty and Children

From Oregon and Washington came persistent efforts to seat members of Canadian Baptist churches as messengers. President Hays referred to the constitutional provision which says that messengers must come from the United States or its territories. The Convention supported this interpretation. It would appear from this distance that Oregon and Washington offer enough missionary opportunities to keep the brethren there busy for years to come without spreading themselves so thinly over into Canada. Canadian Baptist groups resent the "missionary" attitude taken by some Baptists in Oregon and Washington, led by Executive Secretary R. E. Milam. No one questions the need for more churches and mission points in Canada, but it is questionable whether Southern Baptists should take the initiative in establishing them. Help them when they ask for assistance, yes, but go slowly in accepting proposals that would seriously endanger our relations with our Baptist brethren in Canada.

Wrongdoing is a locomotive that draws a long train of consequences after it.—Mrs. T. C. Lowrey, Blue Mountain.

Worship together this week

POSTER PROMOTES RELIGION IN AMERICAN LIFE—New York—This poster depicting an American family going to worship services will be displayed this fall and winter on thousands of billboards, car cards in subways and buses, TV, and in newspapers and magazine advertisements. The posters are part of the 10th annual Religion in American Life campaign to increase regular attendance and support for all churches and synagogues. The program is sponsored by a Laymen's Committee comprising members of various faiths. It is supported by 24 national religious bodies with American business cooperating through the Advertising Council of America. Highlight of all the RIAL program each year is the national drive in November to promote attendance at religious services. November is designated as "Religion in American Life Month." (RNS Photo)

Mississippian In Australia

This ole Mississippian away down here in Australia would like to express his appreciation for your recent editorial taken from the Baptist Standard entitled, "Associate Church Members." Among Australian Baptists, associate church members are known as "Adherent." What was said in the last paragraph of said editorial concerning the Baptists of the American Convention is also true of the Baptists of Australia. All of the Baptist Churches in Australia receive alien immersion and practice open communion. If there are exceptions I have not heard of them in the almost three years that I have been down here. The tragic results of these unscriptural practices are evident.

Recently, the Lord led us to begin an independent work known as the Calvary Baptist Mission. We stepped out in faith believing that God was leading and that He would supply our needs. Already, He has blessed us far beyond that which we ever dreamed of. He has provided a home with an additional block of land which may be used to put a church building on. We have a double garage that has been made into a house of worship seating around 65. We have met for four Sundays and are having 55 to 60 in attendance.

We have eight young preachers and several talented musicians. We have two vans equipped with public address systems for use in open air work. In the very near future, the Lord willing, we hope to have two teams out on Saturday nights preaching God's Word from street corners in metropolitan Newcastle (a city of over 130,000 pop.), and around three or four teams out on Sunday afternoons teaching open air Sunday Schools in different parks and places where children are congregated.

erty and separation of church and state, spurned and hated by many but for which Baptists have spilled their blood for centuries, at last may be written into the fundamental law of this country. If so, it will mark an epoch in religious freedom.

That this amendment probably will be submitted to the states for approval is a signal triumph for Baptists and those statesmen — Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Henry, and others — who have stood with them in the long fight for right.

Mississippi, and will receive his B. D. degree here May 16th. Brother Howell has not had opportunity for pastoral experience, but has had extensive experience in mission activities, jail services, personal soul-winning work, as well as Sunday School and Training Union work. I've had Brother Howell in several rural church courses and feel he will be a very stable and solid worker wherever the Lord leads him. Brother Howell expresses the hope that he can return to Mississippi for his pastoral work.

From The Past

By J. L. MOYD Sr.

50 YEARS AGO

Dr. Lancing Burrows, secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention, reports 21,266 churches in the convention territory with 2,015,080 members (white), and 1,900,000 Negro Baptists, a total of 3,915,080 in the United States. And entire number in the world 6,001,905.

40 YEARS AGO

The Hazlehurst Church closed a successful revival meeting with forty additions to the membership. Pastor C. C. Pugh was assisted by Evangelist Ray Palmer and Mr. Cambron as singer.

Camp Pastor J. Frank Norris is reported to have purchased a large truck to transport workers and singers to Camp Bowie. They go from regiment to regiment and hold services. Many soldiers are converted through these services.

25 YEARS AGO

The Griffith Memorial Church, Jackson, received 45 new members into their membership as a result of a revival meeting in which Pastor D. A. McCall was assisted by Sunday School Secretary J. E. Byrd doing the preaching.

Pastor Lawrence Riley of Okolona reports having seven confessions of faith and two additions by letter from a meeting of days in which he was assisted by Rev. O. M. Overton of Fulton as visiting preacher.

A chapel period at Womans College (William Carey) was conducted by the students who had attended Ridgecrest Assembly by giving a typical day at Ridgecrest beginning with the morning watch and ending with the campfire service.

The Ministerial Association on the Mississippi College campus enjoyed a study course conducted by Dr. M. O. Patterson of the Bible Department on the study of the first book of Timothy.

Pastor J. W. Mayfield of the First Church, McComb, did the preaching in a revival effort which resulted in a number of baptisms two Sunday nights in succession. The choir leader of the church, Mr. D. L. Blackwelder, led the singing.

HOMOSEXUAL BOY

QUESTION: I am a 19 year old boy with homosexual tendencies. There has never been an overt act, but the urge and accompanying feelings of guilt reached such a high degree of intensity that last July I consulted a psychiatrist. Since then I have been undergoing psychotherapy without improvement so far as I can tell, even though he was recommended by the Academy of Medicine. He is a Reform Jew and doesn't seem to understand my feelings about this being a sin as described in Rom. 1:26-27. Should I continue with this psychiatrist or seek help elsewhere?

ANSWER: The real question here is not the religion of the psychotherapist, but whether he has the right attitude toward your own decisions. If he is a good therapist, he will leave you free to make up your own mind about right and wrong. Maybe you are trying to get him to think for you or to make decisions for you. This often happens.

Psychotherapy is a slow process and your type of difficulty is sometimes hard to cure. But think what it will mean to you to go through life without having to be molested with these thoughts and feelings. There is real hope for you if you feel as guilty about this whole matter as you seem to. The most Christian thing you can do is to stay in therapy until you have achieved a reasonable degree of comfort and maturity. And I would not change doctors unless I had given this one a fair trial. The religious part of your difficulty may be worked out with some trained minister. (Address questions to Dr. Hudson, 116 West 47 Street, Kansas City 12, Missouri)

Closing Exercises Held By School At Orphanage

The closing exercises of the Baptist Orphanage School in Jackson were held in the school auditorium on Tuesday, May 27, at 10:00 A. M. The invocation was given by Rev. Robert Martin, pastor, Crestwood Church. A one-act play, "Kidnapping Betty," was presented by members of the eighth grade. Frolic Time in song and play was rendered by representatives from the third and fourth grades. Attendance certificates were given to Danny Lovett, Mary Lovett, Gene Morris, Benny Johnson, and Hilda McHann for not having missed a day during the school year. A musical selection sung by the seventh and eighth grades. Welcome was extended by Carole Ricker of the eighth grade. The principal address was brought to the class, school and guests by Tom Marshall — a former student and graduate of the Orphanage School. Mr. Marshall is the past president of the state Junior Chamber of Commerce and received Junior Chamber of Commerce award as the outstanding citizen for service to his community. Certificates Awarded Mr. E. T. Jenkins, Principal, awarded certificates of recognition for having completed the eighth grade course of study. The closing prayer was offered by Rev. Clyde Gordon, a former student of the Orphanage and now pastor of the Church at Raymond. Trustees of the Orphanage were in attendance and later held the quarterly meeting of the group.

No Visa Trouble In Toronto

WASHINGTON, D. C. (BWA) — Foreign young people in the United States with single entry visas have been assured reentry privileges after their attendance at the Baptist Youth World Conference in Toronto this summer. Mr. Joseph S. Henderson, director of the U. S. A. State Department's Visa Office, states: "Persons in possession of single entry visas should be advised to apply for a revalidation at the American Consulate General in Toronto. I have informed the Consulate General of this matter and have requested it to render all possible assistance." Robert S. Denny, associate secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, secured this ruling from Mr. Henderson after foreign young people in the U.S.A. had foreseen difficulty. He suggested that the situation might be eased still further if applications for reentry visas are made in advance of the conference. No passports or visas are required for U. S. citizens entering and leaving Canada.

IS LICENSED TO PREACH

Rev. William Gary Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, Bailey, and a junior at Mississippi College, was licensed to preach by the Arkadelphia Church on his 20th birthday. Ordained as a deacon at Arkadelphia in 1957, he has preached in youth revivals and served as supply pastor. Married to the former Bobbie Joe Golden of Bailey, Mr. Smith plans to enter New Orleans Seminary upon his graduation from Mississippi College.

Three At MC To Work Toward M.A.

Three Mississippi College graduates will receive fellowships under the new graduate program for study on the Master of Arts degree at the college next year. Mrs. Peggy W. Prensaw, of Clinton, 1957 graduate, Charles Bacon, Jackson, and Andy Moore, Crowder, will work on their Master of Arts degrees and teach freshman courses in their major field. For the first time in several years, Mississippi College, will offer a Master of Arts degree beginning with the summer term, 1958. The Master of Arts course will include English, sociology, botany, and history.

The new degree differs from the present Master of Education degree, which requires for the student a minimum of nine hours in education and the possibility of as many as 30 in education. The Master of Arts degree is more of a research degree, according to Dr. H. E. Spell, dean of the college.

NOBLESSE OBLIGE

Joshua 17:17, 18
By WALTER L. MOORE, Pastor
First, Meridian

"Because I have been favored, I deserve the continuance of that favor." So reasoned the children of Joseph in their protest to Joshua. "God has blessed me, so that I am a great people. I ought to have more than one lot of land, and I should have territory clear of dangerous enemies."

The reasoning is familiar. The favored people of any society feel the same way. "Because I am an American and have always had plenty, I ought to have more than the rest of the world." "Because I am educated, and have had special privileges, I ought to receive special consideration." "Because my family has always been well-to-do, I ought to be supported in the manner to which I am accustomed." "Because I am white and have always been favored, I ought to have better things than colored people."

But Joshua dissented. "Thou art a great people, and hast great power... the hill country shall be thine; for though it is a forest, thou shalt cut it down, and the goings out thereof shall be thine for thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron, and though they are strong."

Because they had been favored and had prospered, therefore more should be expected of them. They could face greater hardships, accomplish harder tasks than should be assigned to a weaker people.

We as Americans are a great people. God had blessed us. Therefore we have a great responsibility for the welfare and safety of the rest of the world.

We as Southern Baptists are a great people. God has blessed us, and we are many. We have great material and spiritual resources. Therefore we have a great responsibility for conditions among us and for the evangelization of the world.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON THE LAND OF PROMISE ENTERED

By Bracey Campbell

THE LAND OF PROMISE.
Bible Texts: Joshua 11:16-23; 24:14-14. The war of conquest conducted by Joshua occupied some seven years. According to our information, the war ran between the years 1572-1575—the southern campaign extending over the years 1572-1570, and the northern campaign 1569-1565. And "The land had rest from war."

I. EXTENT OF CONQUEST.
"So Joshua took all that land." What land? It extended from Halak in the Edomite territory south of the Dead Sea, to Baigad at the foot of hoary-headed Mount Hermon. This includes just about the whole of Palestine—but we must be careful not to accept this as fully true, for there never was a time when the whole of that territory was completely subdued.

But Joshua did establish an overall authority over the land, and he did it against stubborn and determined opposition, for the inhabitants of the land were no weaklings or faint-hearts. They fought for their land and dared the worst. Again, while we wish to take no credit from the military glory which belongs to Joshua as one of the greatest commanders in history, let us be careful to remember that he attained his successes under the counsel and control of God.

The inhabitants of the land had troubled God by their wickedness over many years, had grown and remained hard hearted, and had progressed in that course, attuning their hearts to wickedness and bartering themselves to do evil to a point where they had become hardened and confirmed in their wickedness, so that God the Good had utterly rejected them for a people who would, to some extent at least, harken to His voice.

II. THE CALL TO A CHOICE.
"Choose ye this day whom ye will serve." Choose ye! That comes first thing in the morning of every day. Choose ye this day. That necessity confronts every person every day. This necessity for daily, hourly choice constitutes men and women. It sets people apart from all other forms of life. "Choose ye this day whom ye will serve." There is another! "Whom ye will serve," what ye will do, which road ye will take, and to what point ye will pursue it. It is not simply that one make a choice that makes the difference, but what choice will ye, do ye make?

Of course there is such a thing as uncontrollable circumstances. I know a man who wanted to play football in high school. He could not. His eyes were weak and his body too small. Rudyard Kipling tells of a young man who dreamed of being an artist, and who had decided talent, but the poor man went blind, so he could not. But by and large, the conditions to which men come might be known as the result of their choices through the years. A multitude of little choices made day after day, all within one commanding choice, maybe unexpressed, and by-and-by, the choice is made the destiny is sealed.

III. JOSHUA'S CHOICE. "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." There again you have it. "We will!" That's it! We have determined, we have chosen, we have purposed. No doubt Joshua had, through the long years thoroughly considered of the matter. He had heard the voice of great Moses ringing out the challenge to his people. "Hear, O House of Israel! The God our God is One Lord!" First to be noticed is: There is a God above. I said there is a God above! Above all things and peoples and times and events.

Say it to yourself and others, "God is." Here in the midst of us, here in our world, here in the happenings that are making the front pages in our newspapers, here in our homes, he is having to do with our hearts, striving to mould them into fit thrones for His spirit.

Again, He is our God. He made us, and we are the sheep of His pasture, therefore He is our shepherd. He supplies our needs. He is the source of our every blessing. He is our God. To Him we go now and when we leave here, for He is our God. Because he is our God He invites us to share His great heart of pure love and to feast upon the riches of His marvelous grace. He is our Redeemer, He does and will care for us. He is our Father and has that feeling and desire for us that the very best earthly father would wish to have.

Again, He is one. Joshua knew that also. He had been born in a land of many gods of many disgusting forms and characters, but they were no gods, and Joshua had reason for knowing that.

Here, in contrast, is One. He is the Infinite, all-knowing, knowing you perfectly. All-loving is He also, loving you perfectly. And so of all things else, the Indweller, the Overseer, the All-Ruler, shaping the courses of men and of nations of men. All this Joshua knew, and therefore said, "As for me and my house, we will."

Off The Record

THE TROUBLE with some of today's smart children is that they don't smart in the right place.

AN OLD country doctor parked his Model T on the street. When he came back a number of youths were standing around laughing at the old car. The doctor climbed into the seat and said mildly, "The car's paid for boys." Then he looked deliberately from one boy to another. "Yours' not—and you're not."—The Watchman-Examiner.

TOURIST: Is this a good lake for fish?

Disgusted Fisherman: It must be; I can't persuade any of 'em to come out.—Ex.

WHAT THEY SAY — My two-year old son floored me with this one: "The cow says moo, moo, the dog says bow wow, the duck says quack, quack—Mommie says no, no!"—Christian Observer.

Mrs. Uggins — "Well, they do say as 'ow Caruso 'ad a beautiful voice, but 'ow could they know with 'im stranded on that island with nobody but Friday to 'ear 'im?"

ONE DAY a school teacher told her class to write an essay on "Income Tax."

A small boy thought long and hard, and at last he wrote the following: "I have a dog, an' his name is Tax. I open the door, an'—in come Tax!"—Copied.
